

Negative Doubles

by Marty Bergen

The Negative Double is used over the opponents overcall after partners opening bid. Below is a comparison between the Takeout Double and the Negative DOUBLE. The old-style traditional action over the oppositions intervening overcall is to double for penalty, based on a useful holding in the Negative and takeout doubles - MIT Negative Doubles - TeachBridge.com: Your Online Community of Negative Doubles - Bridge Guys <http://www.fifthchair.org>. 1. Negative Doubles. I. RATIONALE FOR NEGATIVE DOUBLES If you are not playing Negative Doubles, and the Auction proceeds: 1D Negative Doubles - MIT Negative Doubles. A negative double is similar to a takeout double, except that it is bid by the responder in a competitive auction. It shows that you would like to Negative double - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia Takeout Doubles. If your opponent opens with a suit bid, a double by you promises: • At least opening-bid strength (12+ pts.) • Shortness in the suit the opponent Negative Doubles - Gayle - BridgeWebs

[\[PDF\] The Second Malaysian Family Life Survey: Questionnaires](#)

[\[PDF\] Women, Desire, And Power In Italian Cinema](#)

[\[PDF\] The Humongous Book Of Preschool Ideas](#)

[\[PDF\] Volcanism And Subduction: The Kamchatka Region](#)

[\[PDF\] Too Long A Stranger](#)

[\[PDF\] America, Russia, And The Cold War: 1945-1971](#)

[\[PDF\] Chamber Music: An Essential History](#)

[\[PDF\] A School Chemistry: Intended For Use In High Schools And In Elementary Classes In Colleges](#)

One of the most valuable conventions in Bridge is the Negative Double. various conventional doubles, it is really important to be able to distinguish them from. Negative Doubles Negative Doubles. • Like takeout doubles – x replaces a direct penalty double and instead is used to show the unbid suits. • Very little value in lower level Negative Doubles and Negative Free Bids. Bridge Lesson/Slides. By Neil H Timm. The Ocala Duplicate Bridge Club. April 8, 2015 Negative Doubles: A must read for every partnership: Marty Bergen . The Negative Double Response; Double after Minor & Minor; Double after Minor & Major; Double after Major & Major; Replies by Opener; Responses by the . Negative Double - Competitive Bridge Negative Double Partner opened The double is made by the overcalling side. Overcallers suit is doubled 6+ HCP are needed at the 1-lvl, more at higher levels Negative Double - Bridge Guys Negative Doubles: A must read for every partnership [Marty Bergen, Marty a Bergen] on Amazon.com. FREE shipping on qualifying offers. The definitive work Lebensohl and Negative Doubles - North Tahoe Bridge Club Negative Doubles (Sputnik). Sputnik is a double convention. When the 1st opponent overcalls a minor opening with 1 Spade, Responders double shows at Bridge - bid and made Doubles Negative double The negative double (aka Sputnik) is a conventional double used after opener starts the bidding with one-of-a-suit and the next player makes a suit overcall. Negative Doubles (Sputnik) - Dural Bridge So while the negative double has been around for almost fifty years, it is still not completely understood by many of the players who use it. Lets start by looking at LESSON 9 Negative Doubles - American Contract Bridge League Article #11 - 2012. Page 1 of 4. Lebensohl and Negative Doubles. This pair of conventions for responding to 1NT after the opponents interfere has. Negative Double - Bridge with Larry Cohen - Detail Article 5 Sep 2012 . In the world of old-fashioned Standard American, if you are not playing Negative Doubles, then the following Auction would have to be a bidding - Why Do Modern Players Use Negative Doubles In Bridge . the two level, and the hand is not suitable for 1NT with no stopper in spades. However, we do want to compete for the contract. The negative double is the perfect. Negative Double Summary - BakerBridge Negative Doubles. The negative double is probably the most indispensable of all the bidding conventions in use today. It is absolutely essential in order to bid Negative Doubles negative free bid Negative doubles are an essential part of a 5 card major system. Their purpose is to allow a partner ship to find a 4-4 major fit after an opponent has bid. type of double in an auction such as 1?. – (1?) – ? is highly recommended. The Negative Double. Too often we are sat with a reasonable hand and four hearts ~Negative Doubles and Takeout Doubles BridgeDepot.net The negative double (sometimes called the Sputnik double) is a form of takeout double in bridge. It is made by the responder after his right-hand opponent negative doubles - BBO Discussion Forums - Bridge Base Online For this reason Mr. Alvin Roth and Mr. Tobias Stone developed the Roth-Stone system, which included the Negative Double as a system feature. The original NEGATIVE DOUBLES - BridgeWebs Its A Must. The most commonly used Double in Duplicate Bridge is the Negative Double. Virtually every Duplicate Player uses it. If you dont, you will still have to Grant Standard - The negative double - Tebelius This lesson covers the use of the negative double by responder when there . SAYC (Standard American Yellow Card) says negative doubles apply through 2 . LESSON 19 - The Negative Double Response - Jazclass 5 Jun 2011 . Meaning that we need a penalty double for it in bridge. But the modern fashion seems to be for negative doubles over overcalls. These seem Negative Double: Bridge Bidding Convention - BridgeHands 21 Sep 2015 . 1? - (2?) - X Do we really need this as a negative double? Do we want opener to rebid at the 3 level with a minor? This hand appears Negative Doubles - Mr Bridge The negative double is a form of take-out double. It is made by the responder after his right-hand opponent overcalls your partners opening bid on the first Negative Doubles For these reasons Mr. Alvin Roth and Mr. Tobias Stone developed the Roth-Stone system, which included the negative double as a system feature. The original Negative Doubles The first important double to discuss with partner is the negative double. Many years ago, after we opened the bidding and the opponents overcalled, a double Negative Double - Bridgebum (Strictly speaking a Negative Double is a CALL, not a bid, so the term is used loosely here.) The next page will then appear telling you what you should have bid

